ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICE OF THE COURTS
JUVENILE JUSTICE SERVICES DIVISION
Contract Year 2009-2010
SERVICE SPECIFICATION
ADJUNCTIVE THERAPY
Service Code 142

SERVICE DEFINITION:

This service provides alternative interventions to address a youth's cognitive, social or behavioral problems, including a wide range of personal, interpersonal, situational and functional problems. Adjunctive therapy uses supplemental activities or tasks to assist in reaching the youth's treatment goals. Adjunctive therapy may be delivered in individual, family, and group settings. Examples of adjunctive therapy are equine therapy, art therapy, and music therapy.

STANDARDS/LICENSURE REQUIREMENTS:

- At a minimum, services will be provided by a person who holds a Masters degree and is licensed at the independent practice level by the Arizona Board of Behavioral Health Examiners or is exempt from licensure pursuant A.R.S. Title 32, Chapter 33.
- Licensure is not required for those persons with a Masters degree in Human Services who are employed by a licensed behavioral health agency.

UNITS OF SERVICE:

One unit equals one hour (50 minutes for therapy and 10 minutes for records documentation).

SERVICE GOAL:

To identify and treat behavioral and emotional needs within the cultural context of the youth using the appropriate adjunctive activities and/or tasks. To provide individualized treatment services in the least restrictive environment which addresses therapeutic goals indicated on the individual service plan.

SERVICE TASKS:

1. Review existing social history and other relevant information.
2. With all involved parties, develop a treatment plan and/or individual service plan which addresses the needs of the youth. Individual service plan must include goals and objectives specific to the method of adjunctive therapy used and indicate how the adjunctive therapy method will address these goals and objectives.
